Re: Hamed v. Yusuf and United, case no. SX-12-CV-370

Dear Mr. Holt,

This letter is a continuation of our correspondence regarding discovery in the above referenced case (see correspondence dated 10.26.2012, 10.27.2012, 10.29.2012, 10.30.2012, and 11.7.2012).

We had agreed to table the issue of discovery in our November 6, 2012, telephonic conversation. After considering how this case is progressing, and because, to date, numerous substantive motions remain outstanding, including Defendants' Motion to Strike Self-Appointed Representative, I have changed my view that discovery should be stayed. Accordingly, I have no objections to the parties availing themselves to the full array of discovery options as contemplated under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Kind Regards,
