On Appeal from the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands

ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on Appellants’ Motion for Leave to File an Over-Length Brief.¹ In support of this motion, Appellants state that this matter involves a complicated factual background and, even after undertaking significant efforts to edit and truncate their four arguments, their brief presently totals 35 pages. Appellants therefore do not believe they can effectively present all of their arguments within a 30-page brief. For the reasons provided in their motion, the Court will allow Appellants to file a brief totaling 35 pages. Accordingly, the premises considered, it is hereby

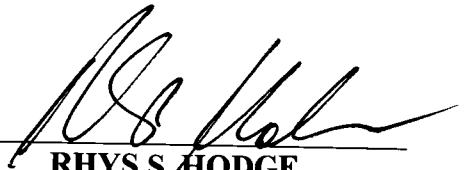

ORDERED that Appellants’ Motion for Leave to File an Over-Length Brief is GRANTED; and it is further

ORDERED that Appellants MAY FILE a brief totaling 35 pages, exclusive of the table of contents, table of authorities, signature, certificate of service and certificate of bar membership; and it is further

ORDERED that copies of this Order shall be issued to the parties

SO ORDERED this 10th day of June, 2013.

RHYS S. HODGE
Chief Justice
