Memo to Judge Ross:

As per your Order, the parties have jointly prepared two sets of hard copies of all filings, which my office has agreed to provide to you. Several comments are in order to explain what are in the box (one for you and one for Attorney Kuo):

1. There is a separate file with your Orders.
2. There is a separate file with the general pleadings by both parties since the Caseanywhere system was established.
3. There is a separate file with the December hearing transcript.
4. There is a separate file with the stipulated discovery Order that you need to approve (if acceptable to you) so the parties can start discovery.
5. The remaining folders are of all the separate claims, with each file having a motion, an opposition and a reply. All exhibits are attached. The Yusuf motions re the claims are first, followed by the Hamed motions re the claims.
6. In the Integra file, Attorney Hodges moved to substitute one exhibit, which Hamed did not oppose. By agreement of the parties, that exhibit was substituted in the original opposition so you only have the correct one.
7. In the motions re the "$504,591.04" claim as well as the "Condensers" claim, there is an additional motion to file a surreply by Yusuf with Hamed's opposition.

Please let the parties know if you have any questions.

Cc: Attorney Kuo, Gregory Hodges
